Chairman of Hastings Hotels, Sir William Hastings said: "Food provenance is of major importance to us and we have led the way in championing local suppliers and the delightful local produce available right on our doorsteps. Northern Ireland has a wealth of top class produce and we are dedicated to ensuring we use as much of what is available to us which is reflected in the menus throughout our six hotels.

"When Tourism Northern Ireland first announced that 2016 would be the Year of Food and Drink, we at Hastings Hotels were delighted. Food and drink is a key element of the visitor experience in Northern Ireland and it is fantastic that there will be a celebration throughout this year for visitors and local people to enjoy," Sir William continued.

"At Hastings Hotels we are kicking off our celebration of the Year of Food and Drink by celebrating the first meal of the day – breakfast. This is perhaps one of the most important meals of the day and one in which most, if not all, visitors to Northern Ireland enjoy while they are here. We at Hastings Hotels pride ourselves in ensuring all our guests have a memorable breakfast experience and work with local suppliers to create a wonderful choice of breakfast options for people to enjoy.

"For Breakfast Month, we have worked with our chefs and our local suppliers to create two All Day Gourmet Breakfast Specials which are available every day in January from 12pm. This is just the beginning of what promises to be a fantastically mouth-watering year at Hastings Hotels," Sir William added.
